JMIN - Master's degree in Digital and Interactive Games and Media

◆ For European students

Nationals of a member country of the European Union, the European Economic Area, Monaco, Andorra or Switzerland: €335/year (this includes the €243 tuition charges at the master level in public institutions plus the €92 Student and Campus Life Contribution fee known as the 'CVEC'*).

It is possible to obtain a CROUS scholarship on the basis of social criteria and, for those having completed a «Licence» in another French region, a mobility financial aid for graduates.

◆ For non EU-students

You will be required to pay differentiated registration fees if:

- You are enrolling for the 1st time for a Master's degree;
- Provided that you are not permanently settled in France.

The French State will thus cover two thirds of the cost of your training. The total registration fee that you will be required to pay will be €3,770 per year.

Please note that you can apply to a CROUS scholarship, an Erasmus+ mobility scholarship for foreign students, a French Ministry of Higher education and Research scholarship or one of the many French Europe and Foreign Affairs Ministry scholarships for foreign students.

French regions and towns allocate scholarships to foreign students enrolled in programs in their region.

 The CVEC applies to French and foreign students enrolling for a degree program in a public or private institution on higher education in France.*
